

Meeting-in-a-Box Introduction

What is a Meeting-in-a-Box?

- A small group meeting where you can dive into comprehensive plan topics from land use and mobility to neighborhoods and the natural environment
- A way for Richardson’s residents and stakeholders to provide additional input for the Envision Richardson Comprehensive Plan Update
- A great excuse for a group of neighbors, friends, co-workers, book clubs, church members—any small group of people who live or work in Richardson—to get together!

About the Meeting-in-a-Box

- Your small group meeting can last anywhere from 30 minutes to 2 hours depending on the group and the length of discussion you have around the different questions and topics
- The meeting can be self-guided or facilitated by an Ambassador
- You can answer some of the questions provided or all of them
- We encourage discussion!

How to Meeting-in-a-Box

- Arrange your group’s meeting time and location (can be in-person or virtual)
